

Disclosure of change in teacher’s police information

Approved form | May 2026

Under Section 68 of the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005 (the Act), if there is a change in an approved teacher’s police information, the teacher must immediately disclose to the College the details of the change.

The maximum penalty for failure to do so is 100 penalty units. The current value of each penalty unit, as well as information regarding fines and special legislation, is available at <https://www.qld.gov.au/law/fines-and-penalties/types-of-fines/sentencing-fines-and-penalties-for-offences>.

For an approved teacher to whom police information does not exist, there is taken to be a change in the teacher’s police information if the teacher acquires police information. Police information is defined in Schedule 3 of the Act and includes any charge and/or conviction for an offence in Queensland or elsewhere. Section 69 of the Act states that the disclosure must be in the approved form.
